St James Friday News 30.06.17

Don't forget you can find lots of important information on our website:

<http://st-james-farnworth.bolton.sch.uk/>

Our 'Calendar' is updated on a regular basis with important school dates.

Attendance

Whole school attendance should be 96% each week. At the moment our weekly attendance figures are not very good! We have worked so hard with attendance over the academic year and it is looking like we might better our attendance rates from last year! This can only be achieved if our weekly attendance improves up to the end of term. Please make sure your child attends school every day. If your child feels a little under the weather in a morning, or complains of feeling tired, please send them into school as they may perk up. If they do not, and they seem unwell, we will send them home. Regular attendance in school is crucial to the academic development of your child. We can see in school a clear difference in abilities of those children who are good attenders and those who have poor attendance. Thank you for your support with this matter.

Summer Fair

A HUGE thank you to everyone who came and supported our Summer Fair on Saturday. Also a very big thank you to the parents who helped to organise the event and for the staff who gave up their time on the day to support. We raised a total of £728!!!! Thank you for all of your donations too!

We look forward to planning another Summer Fair next year.

Parents' Forum

We are hosting a parents' forum on Monday 3rd July 9:00-10:00am in school. This is a chance for parents to come along and tell us what we are doing well (so we do more of it!) or tell us your point of view on things you would like to see improve. We work very hard as a school to make sure that St James is the best it can be and sometimes we might not always see things from a parent's point of view, so we do appreciate constructive and purposeful support and suggestions. We look forward to seeing you there!
